Corent Technology Wins Two of Four Annual Awards at Harvard Entrepreneurs' Conference Fast Pitch Competition
Orange County based "Software as a Service" Company's awards include the prestigious Best Investment Award

IRVINE, California: July 30, 2008 – Corent Technology, Inc. of Aliso Viejo, CA – a leading edge Software as a Service (SaaS) company – unprecedentedly won two of four awards at the Tech Coast Angels recent annual Fast Pitch competition. Corent was voted the Best Investment Opportunity and People's Choice award winner.

“This year's Tech Coast Angels Fast Pitch competition, held in conjunction with the Harvard Business School Entrepreneurs' Conference, was a big success with over 400 in attendance” said Sid Mohasseb, president of Tech Coast Angles (TCA) in Orange County and managing director of Venture Farm. ,

“I would like to congratulate Corent Technology, and its CEO Feyzi Fatehi for winning two of the four granted awards: Best Investment award and People's Choice award. To win an award, a company must pass TCA's vigorous screening, offer a compelling value proposition, and have the ability to communicate it succinctly in 60 seconds”

“The Fast Pitch awards are a confirmation of Corent's unique value proposition that customers and investors alike will find most compelling,” said Feyzi Fatehi, Corent's CEO. “We are honored to be recognized by this prestigious conference and investment group.”

Mark Nielsen, Corent's Chairman and a Tech Coast Angel who previously invested in Corent, said “The Fast Pitch competition forces a company to distill its compelling value message into an extremely focused 'elevator pitch' which gets an investor's immediate attention. Clearly Corent has a huge upside potential that the judges and the audience saw and rewarded. Congratulations to our team!”
